Majority of a quorum of the Management Committee, or upon a petition signed by Owners holding at least fifteen percent (15%) of the voting power having been presented to the Secretary. The notice of any special meeting shall state the time and place of such meeting and the purpose thereof. No business shall be transacted at a special meeting except as stated in the notice, unless by consent of those Owners holding at least four-fifths (4/5ths) of the voting power of the Association, either in person or by proxy. Each first mortgagee of a Unit may designate a representative to attend all special meetings of the Owners.

Section 4 Notice of Meetings of Owners. It shall be the duty of the secretary to mail a notice of each annual or special meeting of Owners, stating the purpose thereof as well as the day, hour and place where it is to be held, to each Owner of record and to each first mortgagee of a unit which has filed a written request for notice with the secretary, at least ten (10) days, but not more than sixty (60) days prior to such meeting. The notice may set forth time limits for speakers and nominating procedures for the meeting. The mailing of a notice, postage prepaid, in the manner provided in this section shall be considered notice served, after said notice has been deposited in a regular depository of the United States mail.

If no address has been furnished to the secretary, notice shall be deemed to have been given to an Owner if posted in a conspicuous place at the condominium project.

Section 5 Adjourned Meeting. If any meeting of Owners cannot be organized because a quorum has not attended, the Owners who are present, either in person or by proxy, may adjourn the meeting to a time not less than five (5) nor more than thirty (30) days from the time the original meeting was called, at which meeting the quorum requirement shall be the presence, in person or by proxy, of the Owners holding at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the voting power of the Association. Such adjourned meetings may be held without notice thereof, except that notice shall be given by announcement at the meeting at which such adjournment is taken. If a meeting is adjourned for more than thirty (30) days, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting.

Section 6. Order of Business The order of business at all meetings of the Owners shall be as follows.

The management Committee is hereby authorized to incur any and all such expenditures for any of the foregoing purposes and to provide, or cause to be provided, adequate reserves,

(f) To enforce the provisions of this Declaration covering the condominium common areas, this Declaration or other agreements of the Association,

(g) To contract for and pay insurance in accordance with the provisions of this Declaration;

(h) To contract for and pay maintenance, gardening, utilities, materials and supplies and services relating to the condominium common areas and to employ personnel necessary for the operation of the condominium common areas, including legal and accounting services and to contract for and pay for improvements and facilities on the condominium common area,

(i) To delegate its powers according to law and this Declaration,

(j) To grant easements where necessary for utilities and sewer facilities over the condominium common areas;

areas;

(k) To adapt Such Rules and Regulations as the Management Committee may deem necessary for the management of the condominium common areas, which Rules and Regulations shall become effective and binding after:

(1) they are adopted by a majority of the Management Committee after a meeting called for that purpose or by the written consent of such number of members attached to a copy of the Rules and Regulations of the Association, and

(2) they are posted in a conspicuous place in the condominium common areas.

For so long as Declarant holds or directly controls at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the voting power of the Association, such Rules and Regulations shall not materially affect the rights, privileges or preference of any Owner as established by this Declaration, without the prior written approval of the Utah Commissioner of Real Estate. Such Rules and Regulations may concern, without limitation, use of the common areas, signs, parking restrictions, minimum standards of property maintenance consistent with this Declaration and any other matters within the jurisdiction of the Association as provided in this Declaration. provided, however, that such Rules and Regulations shall be enforceable only to the extent that they are consistent with this Declaration.

(L) To make available to Unit Owners, prospective purchasers, lenders and the holders and insurers of the first mortgage on any unit, current copies of this Declaration and

Assessments

Section 1 Every Owner of a Unit which is substantially constructed and ready for occupancy, including Declarant shall pay his proportionate share of the Condominium common expenses. Payment thereof shall be in such Amounts and at such times as the Management Committee determines in accordance with the Act. this Declaration and The Bylaws. There shall be a lien for non-payment of Condominium common expense as provided by Utah Code Annotated, Section 57-8-20. 1953, asamended.

In assessing Unit Owners or requiring them to pay the building improvements and other improvements of the condominium common areas and facilities following the execution of this Declaration, it is agreed that no assessment for a single improvement in the nature of the capital expenditure exceeding the sum of THREE THOUSAND ($3,000.00) DOLLARS in cost shall be made without the same having been first voted on and approved by Owners of seventy percent (75%) or more of the undivided interests in the condominium common areas and facilities. The foregoing sentence shall not apply in connection with the replacement or reconstruction occasioned by fire or other casualty.

Furthermore, since not all units in the project have balconies, the Home Owners Association shall have the power to assess units with balconies separately if needed.

ARTICLE VII

Destruction or Damage

In the event of damage to or destruction of part or all of the improvements in the condominium project, the following Procedure shall apply:

(a) If proceeds of the insurance maintained by the Management Committee are alone sufficient to repair or reconstruct the damaged or destroyed improvement. such repair or reconstruction shall be carried out

(b) If less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the projects improvements are destroyed or substantially damaged and if proceeds of the insurance maintained by the Management Committee are not alone sufficient to accomplish repair or reconstruction, restoration shall be carried out and all the Unit Owners shall be assessed for any deficiency on the basis of their respective percentages of undivided interest in the common areas and facilities

(c) If seventy-five percent (75%) or more of the project's improvements are destroyed or substantially damaged and if proceeds of the insurance maintained by the Management Committee are not alone sufficient to accomplish repair or reconstruction, and if the Unit Owners, within 100 days after the destruction or damage by a vote of at least seventy-five Percent (75%) elect to repair or reconstruct the affected improvements, restoration shall be accomplished in the manner directed under subparagraph (b) above.

(d).If seventy-five percent (75%) or more of the projects improvements are destroyed or substantially damaged. and if proceeds of the insurance maintained by the Management Committee are insufficient to accomplish restoration and if he Unit Owners do not, within 100 days after the destruction or damage and by vote of at least seventy-five percent (75%) elect to repair or reconstruct affected improvements, the Management Committee shall promptly record, with the Davis County Recorder. a notice setting forth such facts. Upon the recording of such notice the provision of subsections (1) through (4) of Section 57-8- 31, Utah Code Annotated, 1953. as amended. shall apply and shall govern the rights of all parties having an interest in the project or any of the units

Any reconstruction or repair which is required to be carried out by this paragraph shall be accomplished at the instance and direction of the management Committee. A y determination which is required to be made by this paragraph regarding the extent of damage to or destruction of protect improvements shall be made as follows. The Management Committee shall elect three (3) appraisers; each appraiser shall independently arrive at a figure representing the percentage of protect. improvements which have been destroyed or substantially damaged; the percentage which governs the

Insurance

Section 1 Type and Scope of Insurance Coverage Required

(A) Insurance for Fire and Other Perils. The Owners Association must obtain, maintain and pay the premiums upon, as a common expense, a "master" or "blanket" type policy of property insurance covering all of the common elements and limited common elements (except land, foundation, excavation and other items normally excluded from coverage), including fixtures, to the extent they are part of the common elements

Denote single entity condominium insurance coverage. In addition, any fixtures, equipment or other property within the Units which are to be financed by a mortgage to be purchased by FNMA or FHLMC ( regardless of whether or not such property is a part of the common elements). Must be covered in such "master" or "blanket" policy.

Such policy must be consistent with state and local insurance laws and at least equal to such coverage as is commonly required by prudent institutional mortgage inventors in the area. The policy shall be in an amount equal to 100% of current replacement cost of the condominium exclusive of land, foundation, excavation and other items normally excluded from coverage.

The name of the insured under such policies must be set forth therein substantially as follows

Association of Owners of FALCON RICGE ESTATES
condominiums for use and benefit of the individual owners (designated by name if required by law)

The policies may also be issued in the name of an authorized representative of the Owners Association, including any insurance trustee with whom the Owners Association has entered into an Insurance Trust Agreement, or any successor trustee, as insured, for the use and benefit of Each Unit Owner and each Unit Owners mortgagee, if any, shall be beneficiaries of the policy in the percentage of common ownership. Certificates of Insurance shall be issued to each Unit Owner and mortgagee upon request.

Such policies shall contain the standard mortgage clause or equivalent endorsement (without contribution), which is commonly accepted by private institutional mortgage investors in the area and which appropriately names FNMA and FHLMC if such corporations are holders of first mortgages on units within the condominium project. Such policies must also provide that they may not be canceled or substantially modified without at least ten (10) days prior written notice to the Owners Association and to each holder of a first mortgage listed as a scheduled holder of a first mortgage in the policies.

Policies are unacceptable where.

(a) Under the terms of the insurance carriers charter, bylaws or policy, contributions or assessments may be made against borrowers, FNMA, FHLMC or the designee of FNMA or DU.MC, or

In addition, such policies shall include an Agreed Amount Endorsement and, if available, an Inflation Guard Endorsement.

(B) Liability Insurance. The Owners' Association must obtain and maintain comprehensive general liability insurance coverage covering all of the common elements, commercial space owned and leased by the Owners' Association and public ways of the condominium project. Coverage limits shall be in amounts generally required by private institutional mortgage investors projects similar in construction, location and use. However, such coverage shall be for at least $1,000,000.00 for bodily injury, including deaths of persons and property damage arising out of a single occurrence. Coverage under this policy shall include, without limitation, legal liability of the Insures for property damage, bodily injuries and deaths of persons in connection with the operation, maintenance or use of the common elements, and legal liability arising out of lawsuits related to employment contracts of the owners' Association. Such policies must provide that they may not be canceled or substantially modified, by any part, without at least ten (10) days prior written notice to the Owners Association and to each holder of a first mortgage on any unit in the condominium which is listed as a scheduled holder of a first mortgage in the insurance policy. Such coverage must include protection against such other risks as are customarily covered with respect to condominium similar in construction, location and use, including but not limited to, host liquor liability, employers liability insurance, contractual and all-written contract insurance and comprehensive automobile liability insurance.

(C) Flood Insurance. In the event the condominium is located within an area which has been officially identified by the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development as having special flood hazards and for which flood insurance has been made available under the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP), the Owners' Association must obtain and pay the premiums upon, as a common expense, a master or "blanket" policy of flood insurance on the buildings and any other property covered by the required form of policy (herein insurable property), in an amount deemed appropriate by the Owners' Association, but not less than the following

The lesser of: (a) the maximum coverage available under the NFIP for all buildings and other insurable property within the condominium to the extent that such buildings and other insurable property are within an area having special flood hazards, or (b) 100% of current "replacement cost" of all such buildings and other insurable property within such area.

Such policy shall be in a form which meets the criteria set forth in the most current guidelines on the subject issued by the Federal Insurance Administrator

(D) Fidelity Bonds Fidelity bonds shall be required to be maintained by the Owners' Association for all officers and employees of the Owners' Association and all other persons handling or responsible for, funds of or administered by the Owners' Association. Where the management agent has the responsibility for handling or administering funds of the Owners' Association, the management agent shall be required to maintain fidelity bond coverage for its officers, employees and agents handling or responsible for funds of, or administered on behalf of, the Owners' Association. Such fidelity bonds shall name the Owners' Association as an obligee and shall not be less than the estimated maximum of funds, including reserve funds, in the custody of the Owners' Association or the management agent, as the case may be, at any given time during the term of each bond. However, in no event may the aggregate amount of such bonds be less than a sum equal to three months aggregate assessments on all units plus reserve funds. The bonds shall contain waivers by the issuers of the bonds of all defenses based upon the exclusion, of persons serving without compensation from the definition of "employees" or similar terms or expressions. The premiums on all bonds required herein, except those maintained by the management agent, shall be paid by the Owners' Association as a common expense. any portion of the exterior of the building where his unit is located.

ARTICLE XII

Right of Entry

The Management Committee and its duly authorized agents have the right to enter any and all of the units in case of an emergency originating in or threatening such unit or any other part of the project, whether or not the Unit Owner or occupant thereof is present at the time. The Management Committee and its duly authorized agents shall also have the right to enter into any and all of said units at all reasonable times as required for the purpose of making necessary repairs upon the condominium common areas and facilities of the project for the purpose of performing emergency installations, alterations or repairs to the mechanical or electrical devices or installation located therein or thereon, provided, however, such emergency installations, alterations or repairs are necessary to prevent damage or threatened damage to other units in the project and provided further, that the Unit Owner affected by such entry shall first be notified thereof if available and if time permits.

ARTICLE XIII

Obligation to Comply Herewith

Each Unit Owner, tenant or occupant of a unit shall comply with the provisions of the Act, this Declaration and the Rules and Regulations, all agreements and determinations lawfully made and/or entered into by the Management Committee or the Unit Owners when acting in accordance with their authority and any failure to comply with any of the provisions thereof shall be grounds for an action by the Management Committee to recover any loss or damage resulting therefrom or injunctive relief.

ARTICLE XIV

Indemnification of Management Committee

Each member of the Management Committee shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Unit Owners against all costs, expenses and liabilities whatsoever, including, without limitation, attorney's Fees reasonably incurred by them in connection with any proceeding to which it may become involved by reason of its being or having been a member of such Management Committee Provided, however, a member of the Management Committee shall not be under this paragraph for any acts which constitute gross negligence or willful misconduct

ARTICLE XV

Transfer or Lease of Units

Any Unit Owner may transfer or lease his unit free from restriction of any right of first refusal. Provided, however, the following leasing restrictions shall obtain.

(a) All leases shall be in writing and shall be subject to this Declaration, and

(b) All leases must have an initial term of at least six (6) months.

ARTICLE XVI

First Lien Holders' Rights

Section 1 Notice of Action. A holder, insurer or guarantor of a first mortgage, upon written request to the Owners' Association [such request to state the name and address of such holder, insurer or guarantor and the unit number), will be entitled to timely written notice of:

Section 1 Additional Property. The Declarant anticipates that the condominium project may be expanded to include certain real property which adjoins the condominium property, which is shown in the preliminary plan, attached hereto. Such expansion shall be contiguous to the development.

Section 2 Reservation of Right to Expand. Declarant hereby reserves the right to expand the condominium project, without the consent of the Unit Owners, additional structures and units which shall be compatible with the structures and units of this present project in terms of quality of construction, the principal materials to be used and architectural style, to be constructed on the real property shown in the preliminary plan or any portion thereof. The total number of units which may be constructed on said additional property shall not exceed 16 units, and the entire project, including this present project and all subsequent phases shall not exceed a total of 32 units. The Project shall consist of a minimum of 16 Units and a possible maximum of 32 units.

Section 3 Supplemental Declarations and Supplemental Maps. Such expansion may be accomplished by the filing for record by Declarant in the office of the County Recorder of Davis County, Utah, no later than seven (7) years from the date this Declaration is recorded in said office, a supplement or supplements to this Declaration containing a legal description of the site or sites for new units, together with supplemental Map or Maps containing the same information with respect to the new units as was required on the original Map with respect to the initial units. The expansion may be accomplished in phases by successive supplements or in one supplemental expansion.

Section 4. Expansion of Provisions. In the event of such expansion, the provision used in this Declaration automatically shall be expanded to encompass and refer to the project as so expanded and reference to this Declaration shall mean this Declaration as so supplemented. All conveyances of units after such expansion shall be effective to transfer rights in the project, as expanded, by use of the forms of description set forth herein, with additional reference to the supplemental Declarations and the supplemental Maps. The recordation in the office of the Davis County Recorder, Farmington, Utah, of a supplemental Map incident to any expansion shall operate automatically to grant, transfer and convey pro tanto to then owners of units in the project as a result of such expansion. and to reduce pre tanto their percentages of interest ln the original condominium property as it then exists. Substantial identical nits in all phases will be awarded substantially identical interest in the common areas. Such recordation shall also operate to vest in any then mortgagee of any unit in the project as it exists, such interest so acquired by the owner of the unit encumbering the new common areas added to the probject as a result of such expansion and to conform the percentage interests of Unit Owners and mortgagees to the interests set forth ln the supplemental Declaration

Section 5 Declaration Operative on New Units The new units shall be subject to all the terms and conditions of this Declaration and of a supplemental Declaration and the units therein shall be subject to condominium ownership with all the incidents pertaining thereto as specified herein, upon filing the supplemental Hap and supplemental Declaration in the said office of the Davis County Recorder

Section 6 Right of Declarant to Adlust Percentages of Common Areas. Each deed of a unit shall be deemed to irrevocably reserve to Declarant the power to appoint to Unit Owners, from time to time, the percentages ln the common areas set forth in supplemental or amended Declarations. A power coupled with an interest is hereby granted to Declarant, as attorney-in-fact to shift percentages of the common areas and facilities in accordance with supplemental or amended Declarations recorded pursuant hereto and each deed of a unit in the project shall be deemed a grant of such power of said attorney-in-fact various provisions of this Declaration and deeds and mortgages of the units may contain clauses designed to accomplish a shifting of the common areas. None of said provisions shall invalidate the other but each shall be deemed supplementary to the other toward the end that a valid shifting of the common areas and facilities can be accomplished. The maximum interest in the common areas of Unit Owners in this project shall be as indicated in this Declaration. Furthermore, all Unit Owners in this project shall have a maximum interest in the common areas of 6.25% and a minimum interest in the common areas of at least 3.125% after all possible phases of this project have been filed.

Section 7 Improvements, Liens and Consent

(A) All improvements on the property to be added shall be substantially complete before such property is added to the project;

(B) Liens arising in connection with the Declarant's ownership of and construction of improvements upon the property to be added must not adversely affect the rights of existing Unit Owners or the priority of first mortgages on units in the existing condominium project. All taxes and other assessments relating to such property covering any period prior to the addition of the property must be paid or otherwise satisfactorily provided for by the Declarant, and
